

STUDENT LEADERSHIP INFORMATION

General Qualifications

- Applicants must commit to the entire duration of the selection period, which lasts from the beginning of fall semester through the end of spring semester.
 - Spring students are a possible exception to this policy.
- Students in a Student Leadership role must not be married.
- Attendance at Student Leadership Training is mandatory.

Academic Qualifications

- Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.5 to be considered for a leadership position. Those awarded positions must maintain a semester GPA of at least 2.5 to continue as a student leader. (For 2nd year applicants, those who do not currently have a cumulative 2.5 GPA may not be considered).

Leadership Qualifications

- Be able to demonstrate spiritual and emotional maturity, stability, and leadership ability.
- Must abide by the Word of Life Fellowship Standard of Conduct and the Word of Life Bible Institute Handbook.
- Demonstrate a sincere desire to serve other students and to see them develop spiritually.
- Must have a teachable spirit.
- Must have good interpersonal and public relations skills and be customer service oriented.

Selection Process

- Staff will review your application once it is received and based on the application, references, and other factors, a Student Life Dean or a Work Area Supervisor will reach out to candidates for an interview.
- Interviews will be completed virtually or in person for those in 1st year on the NY Campus.
- Students may accept or decline positions offered to them. Those who accept a position will be expected to attend Student Leadership Training and will receive additional information.
- The Student Leadership Program is a scholarship opportunity. Those given a position will be granted a $3,000 scholarship to Word of Life Bible Institute.
- All completed applications will be kept on file for any additional openings.

Housing

- If assigned a position, the Student Life Deans will choose your housing.
- Dorm styles vary across campus (hall style dorms, chalets, cabins).
- The Student Life Deans reserve the right to assign and/or change a room or dorm assignment at any time.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP PROGRAM OPTIONS

Resident Assistant Program (RA)

Department Organization

- RAs are responsible for 7-8 students living on their assigned floor or in their assigned building(s). RAs live on their assigned floor or in one of their assigned building(s).
- Resident Directors (RDs) are Word of Life Bible Institute staff and serve in the Student Life Department. They supervise and minister to 8-10 RAs and live on campus.
- Student Life Deans are Word of Life Bible Institute staff and lead the Student Life Department. They supervise and minister to the RDs.

Training

- RAs will receive leadership, discipleship, and ministry training throughout the academic year in the Student Leadership Elective, which is a formal class taught by Student Life Deans and other staff and faculty, with the goal of equipping RAs for their current responsibilities and potential future opportunities.
- RAs will also receive weekly discipleship, encouragement, accountability, and on-the-job coaching from their RD.

Scheduling

- Because of the nature of the Resident Assistant program, some opportunities will not be available for Dorm RAs, such as certain ministries and the Student Experience Program.
- RAs must remain in their housing area at the end of each term until all assigned residents have been properly checked out and other RA responsibilities are completed.
- RAs will work approximately 15 hours each week.

Student Development

- Commit to educating residents within the aims of the Student Life Department Core Values and Philosophy statement.
- Lead residents by personal example in spiritual integrity, academic commitment, moral character, emotional maturity, and community standards.
- Make informal visits on a regular basis to residents to maintain contact and discuss their concerns.

Dorm Oversight

- Facilitate the WOLBI Student Handbook.
- Schedule and plan devotions during the week.
- Maintain dorm cleanliness as outlined in the Handbook.
- Meet with incoming residents to complete a Dorm Room Contract.
- File maintenance and dorm damage reports promptly.
- Promote hall safety, security, and resident personal safety by enforcing federal and state fire and safety procedures.
- Assist with dorm emergencies.
- Be active encouraging students in their assigned dorms to fill out theft reports.

Reporting

- Maintain regular contact with the RD to report resident concerns.
- Investigate and report violations of the Word of Life Bible Institute Handbook and residential living standards and policies to the Resident Director through violation reports.
- Inform the RD of serious incidents, resident illnesses, ongoing pranks, rumors, and theft.
- Submit weekly RA reports.

Other Responsibilities

- Fulfill common Bible Institute responsibilities including adherence to the Statement of Faith and Standard of Conduct of Word of Life Fellowship.
- Meet weekly with their RD.
- Responsibilities may include being a Section Leader in the classroom.

Student Experience Program (SEP)

Mission Statement

- The Student Experience Program develops students to learn marketable skills through supervised and directed vocational experience that will help them live a life of maximum effectiveness for the Lord.
- Training
- SEPs will be oriented to their responsibilities within their various departments and will receive regular feedback and a review each semester from their supervisors.
- Supervisors will mentor their SEPs on a regular basis.

Scheduling

- Each assigned SEP is required to attend SEP training sessions throughout the academic year.
- Because of the nature of the SEP, some ministries may not be available.
- SEPs will work approximately 15 hours each week. This is 7 hours more than a student with a regular Service Assignment.

Student Development

- Be an example, be involved, and be aware.
- Lead residents by personal example in spiritual integrity, work ethic, and community standards.

Other Responsibilities

- Fulfill common Bible Institute responsibilities including adherence to the Statement of Faith and Standard of Conduct.
- Responsibilities may include being a Section Leader in the classroom.
